

Twelve Understandings Concerning the Ecozoic Era

The Nature of the Universe

1. The Unity of the Universe. The universe as a whole is an interacting community of beings inseparably related in space and time. From its beginning the universe has had a psychic-spiritual dimension. The universe is a communion of subjects not a collection of objects.
2. Modes of Expression. The universe expresses itself at all levels through communion (intimacy, interrelatedness), differentiation (diversity), and subjectivity (interiority, self-organization).
3. Cosmogogenesis. The universe is a creative, emergent, evolutionary reality that has developed from the time of the primordial flaring forth, and is still developing, through a sequence of irreversible transformations.

Earth and Its Current Dilemma

4. Earth. Earth is a one time endowment in the unfolding story of the universe.
5. The Current Dilemma. The effects of human activity on Earth have become so pervasive and invasive that the survival and health of the Earth community now rest on decisions being made, and actions being taken, by humans.
6. Transition to the Ecozoic Era. There is a need to move from the current technozoic period where Earth is seen as resource for the benefit of humans, to an Ecozoic Era where the well-being of the entire Earth community is the primary concern.

Three Key Building Blocks

7. The New Story. The New Story, the narrative of the evolutionary development of the universe from the primordial flaring forth to the emergence of the Ecozoic Era, provides a unifying myth for all human cultures and a basis for common action in the realization of the Ecozoic Era.

8. Bioregionalism. Bioregionalism, care for Earth in its relatively self-sustaining geo-biological divisions, reorients human activity in developing sustainable modes of living, building inclusive human community, caring for the rights of other species, and preserving the health of the Earth on which all life depends.
9. Ecological Spirituality. Ecological spirituality, presence to the primal mystery and value of nature and to Earth as a single sacred community, provides a basis for revitalizing religious experience and healing the human psyche.

Special Contributors to the Ecozoic Era

10. Women, Indigenous People, Science, and Humanistic and Religious Traditions. The wisdom of women, indigenous people, science and classical humanistic and religious traditions will have an important role to play in redefining concepts of value, meaning and fulfillment, and in setting norms of conduct for the Ecozoic Era.
11. The Earth Charter. The Earth Charter provides a comprehensive set of values and principles for the realization of the Ecozoic Era.*

The Great Work

12. The Great Work. The epic task, or “Great Work,” of our time is to bring into being the Ecozoic Era. It is a task in which everyone is involved and from which no one is exempt, and it will require change in every aspect of human society. On it the fate of the Earth depends, and in it lies the hope of the future.

Contributors to this Issue

Connie Barlow is the author of The Ghosts of Evolution; Green Space, Green Time: The Way of Science; Evolution Extended: Biological Debates on the Meaning of Life; and From Gaia to Selfish Genes. She has written and spoken widely on issues relating to science and meaning. She and her husband, Michael Dowd, have become traveling evangelists for “The Great Story” of evolution. See www.thegreatstory.org for information on their work and where they are speaking.

John Cock, writer, publisher, retreat leader, and weblogger, has written five books and helped edit a book of Joseph W. Mathews’ talks—his mentor in spirituality and depth community. A member of the Center for Ecozoic Studies, he has helped design and lead the seminar “Our Great Work.” He publishes online a daily weblog called “Journey Reflection” (see page 1). Herman F. Greene is President of the Center for Ecozoic Studies and Executive Director of the International Process Network. He has just completed a D.Min. degree in Spirituality and Sustainability from United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio. hfgreene@mindspring.com

Ellen LaConte is a former homesteader and Director of the Social Science Institute of Helen and Scott Nearing. After many years of living in the Penobscot Bay bioregion of Maine she relocated in North Carolina. She is writing a book on Critical Mass. elaconte@earthlink.net

F. Nelson Stover is a systems analyst, poet, and teacher. He is Treasurer of the Center for Ecozoic Studies and serves on the International Board of Directors of the Institute for Cultural Affairs. A collection of his poems was published in Nepal with the proceeds being used for women’s literacy training in the Himalayan foothills. He designs and leads courses dealing with contemporary social issues and the individual journey to profound consciousness. FNStover@igc.org.

Anne-Sophie Wiedenmayer is a six-year old who lives in Bern Switzerland. She lives in wonder, has an eye for beauty and has a heart full of love. Contact through karin.wiedenmayer@unibas.ch.
