

Who Will Live the New Way?

Mary Elizabeth Clark, SSJ

My vision of a future
 Shows humans at the Service of nature in such a way it creates a new lens
 Formed on the surface of the human eyes
 To see how all of life was meant to be
 A harmony of interaction—
 Mutuality.
 No longer will there be a force that dominates
 For selfish gains
 But only cooperates for relief of suffering and pains.
 The flourishing of minds
 In ways that foster love
 And wisdom, beauty, science, faith and zeal.
 A new awareness of the Spirit
 Within coaxing unity and joy.

Who will begin to manifest this New Way?
 None but those awake now to the awareness
 Showing itself already from deep within the psyche.

Be silent.
 Let go of Ego.
 Sit in contemplation as the Soul opens
 To this movement of the Great One deep within.

Still the frenetic mind.
 Slow the pace of work.
 Just be.
 For now Earth teaches once again.
 Her humans learn a way of life
 Of moving in harmony and synchronicity.

Watch the little ones.
Observe the redwoods, contemplate the mountains, rivers and seas.
Be still enough to let the raindrops in.
A flowering bursts forth.
As awareness finds a home.

In every system now in place to light the dark, to warm the cold or move the food.
No longer will the human trample underfoot life that bears the seeds of long ago.

Woman now is heard for who she is within the Earth Community.
Her wisdom revered.

Be still.
Just be.
One is.
